2. At 5 p.m. on 29 April 1952, a Soviet destroyer put into the Rostock harbor and tied up to a mooring post there. The two-funneled vessel was about 80 meters long and had a beam of about 8 meters and a displacement of about 800 tons. Her armament consisted of two 100 to 120-mm caliber guns, one mounted forward, the other aft, two canvas-covered AA guns mounted between the aft gun and the second funnel and a canvas-covered AA gun on the bridge.  25X1

 name of the vessel was masked by a wooden board. The destroyer was similar to the former German fleet escort vessels. The vessel left port again at 8 p.m.  25X1
